Description

The LED age creates the opportunity to design unconventional lamps. Thus, with the Betec Cappello lamp, the light is no longer in the centre, but the lamp shade itself is the light. The power supply is provided by a plug-in power supply unit with a 250 cm long cable and a plug directly in the lamp shade and is switched on and off by means of a cable switch. If you want to greet your host at your next invitation with the obligatory champagne bottle in your arms, simply put this lamp shade over the neck of the bottle. The Betec Cappello is available in black or red.

Scope of delivery: lamp shade with LED bulb and plug-in power supply unit with toggle switch.
